

When I was a kid, we just didn't talk about these kinds of things.

What about all the stuff they see on the TV and on the Internet?

How do I talk to my kids about sex and sexuality?

HOME TALKS

HOME TALKS is a relaxed and informal chance for parents to gather and talk in their own homes with an experienced Planned Parenthood educator about helping their adolescent make healthier, safer and better-informed decisions related to sexuality.

HOW DO I ORGANIZE A HOME TALK?

Contact a PPLM Parent Educator

617-616-1658

parenteducation@pplm.org

What does the host provide?

Space

Minimum of 8 parents

What does PPLM provide?

Training Activities & Experienced Educator

Resource Packets & Books

Stipend for Host