

John W. Nugent
President and CEO

John has been a health care administrator for 35 years. He was CEO with Planned Parenthood of the Inland Northwest from 1997-2001 and has been CEO of Planned Parenthood of Maryland since 2001. Prior to this, John was the President/CEO of a hospice organization and a strong Planned Parenthood supporter. In 2009 John's Planned Parenthood Federation of America CEO colleagues elected him to a two-year term on the national Chief Executive Officers Council.

John holds an MA in Ethics from San Francisco Theological Seminary and a BA in Philosophy from Gonzaga University. In addition to his health care administration experience, he has worked as an adjunct college philosophy instructor.

He is a graduate of Leadership Baltimore class of 2005, the 2006 Leadership Maryland class, the 2006 MANO Advocacy Leaders Program and The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Fellows Program, class of 2008. John was a member of the recently completed Baltimore Babies Born Healthy Leadership in Action group.

John currently serves on the boards of the Washington Area Secular Humanists and Americans for Religious Liberty. He and his wife, Janet, are members of the Baltimore Ethical Culture Society, where John is currently the program chair and speaks quite frequently.

John can be reached at: (410) 576-2176; john.nugent@ppmaryland.org