

Marcia Marshall,
Co-chair, 40th Anniversary Committee, Friends of Planned Parenthood - Anne Arundel County

Marcia has a varied background, having lived in Vermont for 20 years prior to moving to the Washington, D.C.-area. She has been involved with Planned Parenthood in one way or another for more than 30 years. Presently, she is an advocate for mental health services in Alexandria, Va.

Marcia holds a Masters Degree in Public Administration from University of Vermont and a Masters Degree (ABD) in American Government from Georgetown University. Her experience ranges from being a staffer in the Vermont state legislature to teaching college Political Science to regulating health insurance to being an advocate for senior citizens. Marcia was also a radio DJ & weather reporter on TV in Vermont.

But through all her varied careers, Marcia has remained an advocate for women's rights & Planned Parenthood.

When she left the Federal government in 2005, she began volunteering for Planned Parenthood of Maryland and has been instrumental in establishing Friends of Planned Parenthood - Anne Arundel County.

Marcia is also a long-time racing sailor and is married to Al Graf, an architect with a practice in Annapolis.
