From the Pill to Implanon, get the most up-to-date information about birth control in the United States. Learn how the newest contraception technology will give people even more control over their fertility.

Upon completion, participants will be able to:

- Identify contraceptive methods currently approved by the U.S. Food & Drug Administration
- Explain how each method prevents pregnancy (and sexually transmitted infections)
- Describe the advantages and disadvantages of each contraceptive method.

*Breakfast is included. If you register for this training and the afternoon training lunch (served 12:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m.) will be included.
