Passion Isn't Enough: The Proof is in Your Actions!

“Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter.”

Through litigation, lobbying, education and grassroots organizing, Planned Parenthood has fought for and expanded the reproductive rights of the individuals and communities we serve. Planned Parenthood is at the forefront of the fight to preserve reproductive freedom, and you are, too.

PPMET and PPGMR have teamed up to bring you a comprehensive, two-day workshop experience that will ensure that you have the skills to be a successful reproductive rights activist as a student and as a citizen: Live Action Camp!

Planned Parenthood has a long history of advocacy, beginning with Margaret Sanger in 1916.

Make a Difference: Get Your Live Action ON!

You are right to believe that reproductive rights are human rights and that the ability to control your own fertility is a fundamental human right! You know deep down that decisions about childbearing should be made by a woman, in consultation with her family, her doctor and her conscience, not by the government or by politicians!

Get up, get out and get moving! Get your action on! Live Action Camp can help you put your passion to work by giving you the tools you need to inspire your peers and educate them on why these issues are important to their future right now.

What: LIVE ACTION CAMP 2008

When: APRIL 5-6

Where: MEMPHIS, TN

What's it about?

It's about the ongoing war on choice: Someone is always working to take away your rights! It's about reproductive freedom, equality of women, and human rights at home and abroad. It's about responsibility and prevention, protecting private decisions and sound science. It's about support for Planned Parenthood's mission and the clients they serve every day! It's about open communication on healthy sexuality and choice issues between peers and between parents and children!
