“Because of my history as a former board member, continuing donor, and strong advocate, I am often asked about local or national issues that may impact PPIL. I always turn to staff for in-depth dialogue on what are often complicated issues. It is enormously reassuring to know that sharing accurate information with all stakeholders and listening to our feedback is a valued part of the culture at PPIL and is integral in advancing the organization's mission.”

— Prue Beidler, Past Board Member
