

YOUTH IN THE MOVEMENT!

Fostering leadership in sexual health & reproductive justice

Planned Parenthood of New York City (PPNYC), 26 Bleecker Street
October 22, 2015, 4:30 - 6:30 pm

A free forum for young people, organizations, parents, and community members, featuring representatives from:

- Teen Advocates at PPNYC – peer educators who lead interactive workshops to educate young people about teens' rights and access to sexual and reproductive health care
- Planned Parenthood Generation Action – young organizers and activists in New York City and around the country committed to mobilizing advocates for reproductive freedom
- Young Women of Color Leadership Council at Advocates for Youth – young women of color who promote a message of prevention and empowerment

Join the Planned Parenthood of New York City Training Institute for a panel presentation and open forum about the meaning of youth leadership, how it benefits young people, and how it advances the sexual health and reproductive justice movement at large.
