

ARE YOU STARTING TESTOSTERONE THERAPY?

UCSD researchers are looking for transgender and gender-diverse individuals starting testosterone to participate in a study about bleeding patterns and other side effects. You could be eligible to participate in this research study whether or not you are also planning on using a progestin hormone. You will answer text message surveys about bleeding patterns and treatment satisfaction. Participants will be eligible for gift card compensation.

If you are interested, call/text us at 858-329-4464 or email
familyplanningresearch@health.ucsd.edu
to see if you qualify!

SCAN ME